65 x 48 x 50 Extended Length Collapsible Bulk Container

SKU: PVBB6548500000

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Pallets & Bins 65″ x 48″ x 50″ collapsible bulk container , also called an Extended Length Bin, is a go-to solution for industries like automotive, manufacturing, food processing, warehousing, and retail. Its compact design maximizes space while offering the durability needed for heavy-duty applications.

Key Features

- Space Optimization: The 50″ height is perfect for maximizing truckloads and warehouse efficiency.
- Rugged Construction: Built with Structural Foam Molded plastic, handling up to 2,000 lbs.
- Collapsible & Efficient: Easily folds down to 24.4”, reducing storage space and return shipping costs.
- User-Friendly Design: Dual drop gates allow quick access, while reinforced fork openings ensure seamless handling.
- Stable Stacking: Engineered for secure stacking, optimizing warehouse organization and transport efficiency.
- Eco-Friendly & Reusable: Constructed from 100% recyclable materials, offering a sustainable alternative to single-use packaging.
- Repairable & Long-Lasting: Features replaceable plastic latches to extend usability and reduce maintenance costs.

Trusted in automotive supply chains, this heavy-duty collapsible bulk bin meets Automotive Industry Action Group (AIAG) specifications. Often called a ROPAK, this container provides a versatile, reusable, and cost-effective packaging solution. Available in multiple sizes, including 34”and 50”, it’s designed to streamline logistics while supporting sustainability goals.
